KIRKMANSVILLE WAS CHOSEN

As Next Place of Meeting of Hopkinsville District Conference.

The Hopkinsville District Conference of the M. E. Church, South, has just closed a three-days' session at Grand Rivers. Kirkmansville was chosen as the place of meeting next year. The following delegates were elected to the Louisville Annual Conference which meets at Franklin next fall: C. E. Sivley, of Howell; J. A. Wheeler, of Crofton; C. C. Patterson, of Kirkmansville and J. A. Akin, of Princeton.

The Modern Spirit.
The modern spirit is not the spirit "which always denies," delighting only in destruction; still less is it that which builds castles in the air rather than not construct; it is that spirit which works and will work, "without haste and without rest," gathering harvest after harvest of truth into its barns and devouring error with unquenchable fire.

Stretch the rug and tack it upon a clean floor. After scouring it well with soapuds, rinse thoroughly to remove all trace of the animal matter in the soap. Let the rug stay tacked down until perfectly dry, so that it will not shrink.

LOCATES IN THE WEST.

Logan Green, a graduate from the law department of Kentucky University, was in the city yesterday, visiting his father, Thomas Green, and left last night for Kansas City, where he will locate for the practice of law, associating himself with the law firm of Hutton & Nourse. The junior member of this firm is James Nourse, another Hopkinsville boy, who is rapidly rising in his chosen profession.
